

ELEMENTARY MASTERS PRESENTS:

MASK MIX WORKSHOP

Sponsored by Utah PTA Arts Education Grant and Sunrise PTA

All parents are invited to participate, ESPECIALLY those who have signed up to teach the Elementary Masters curriculum

Join us for 40-minutes of artmaking in the cafeteria, while students learn about contemporary artist Kimmy Cantrell, view his colorful and textural masks, discuss how they represent diversity, and create their own mask inspired by Cantrell's work. Grade-level workshops will be taught in the cafeteria by Ashley Pettit, Meet the Masters instructor at Oakwood Elementary. ALL PTA VOLUNTEERS will be invited to attend, SPECIFICALLY those who have volunteered to teach art lessons throughout the year. This will be a valuable learning experience for parents as well as students. Elementary Masters volunteers will be able to view art teaching methods from an experienced instructor. They will be able to spend time working with students to create their masks. Teachers are asked to stay and lend support to their students as they work. Students will have the opportunity to create 3-dimensional artwork in a welcoming and inspiring environment.
